Chapter 1 by Mollie Kingsley

"But mom, you have no idea how much is riding on this! All my followers are expecting me to complete the huge dare Abby gave me! If I don't do it, I will lose my reputation as a dare devil!"

Chapter 2 by intellikat

I fall to the ground, smashing my arm into a metal pole causing it to shatter!

Mom looked at me, narrowing her eyes.

"Why do you insist on being a dare devil? You could just as easily be a math devil or a joke devil or a chef devil. When you were in pre-devil school, your father and I were absolutely sure you would be an etiquette devil." She turned back to the brownie batter. "This whole dare devil nonsense needs to stop at some point, Tonya."

"I have almost two thousand followers on Sulffer, mom. I've already promised them a live feed of the jump! You've got to give me a ride there Saturday night!"

"If you're going to jump into the Lake of Fire just to bend to peer pressure and that bully devil, Abby, what is to become of it? Hey? Where will this end?"

She had to do it. It was dangerous, yes but which dare wasn't? Plus, the result of succeeding would be more friends and more followers. Her mum just didn't understand. Most devils admired her, how could she give up all that?

Tonya pulled out her Idemil and replied to the Sulffer request.

DaReDeViLTYA: @Abbeydevin Request Accepted. On Friday, August 26th .

The deal was sealed all Tonya had to do was find someone who would bring her to The Lake of Fire.

"Tyler!" She squealed. "Tyler, he's obsessed with me. He'd totally do it."

Tonya ran her hand through her burgundy hair and applied a light coat of Bombfire's Sapphire lip gloss. She was determined to go there even if it meant seducing her best friend's ex-boyfriend.

"This better work." She muttered as she knocked on Tyler's door. There were shuffling and the sound of numerous lock before the door opened.
